

LETTERS

CONTINUED FROM 4A

ation of servicemembers to serve their country in the military.

Any future conflicts must serve only to defend our vital national interests, and must have the full support and commitment of our leaders. Our military must be trained, equipped and sustained to quickly win any battle. Having a tough lethal U.S. military will deter aggression and foster peace around the world.

*Tony Arbucci
Ellijay*

A heartfelt thank you to our supporters

Habitat for Humanity of Fannin and Gilmer counties is deeply grateful for the unwavering support we have received from our community of donors, volunteers and suppliers. It is through your generosity and dedication that we continue to build safe, affordable homes for hardworking, deserving families.

To our amazing donors, your financial contributions have made an immeasurable impact on our ability to purchase land and materials necessary for our projects. Your donations, matched dollar for dollar by a generous benefactor, have doubled the impact of your gifts, bringing us closer to our goal of creating a stable future for many families in need. We cannot express enough how much your support means to us and the families we serve.

Our dedicated volunteers are the heart and soul of Habitat for Humanity. Your tireless efforts, whether on the construction sites, in our offices or at our events, have been instrumental in transforming lives and building a stronger community. Your commitment to giving your time and skills to our mission is truly inspiring, and we are profoundly grateful for each and every one of you.

We also extend our deepest gratitude to our generous suppliers who have provided discounted or donated materials. Your contributions are vital in keeping our build costs affordable, allowing us to extend our reach and help more families. Your partnership and support enable us to ensure that every dollar donated stretches further, maximizing the impact of our work. Our local suppliers include: Climatrol, Budget Blinds, MC Granite, Ridge Plumbing, RainMan Roofing, Wayne Davis Concrete, Elite Contractor Services and Custom Mountain Homes.

Together, we are not just building houses; we are building hope, community and a better future for those in need. From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for your continued support and dedication to the mission of Habitat for Humanity of Fannin and Gilmer counties. With your help, we can continue to make dreams of homeownership a reality for many more families.

Warmly, from the Board of Directors: Karleen Ferguson, Robert Gleadall, Kris Reece, Mona Longbottom, Scott Belcher, Tom Griffiths, Pam Fink, Sherry Lang, Linda Graham, Dan Mahoney, Joe Mahovsky and Jeff Milway.

*Anita Hardy
Executive Director
Habitat for Humanity of Fannin and
Gilmer counties*

Bug

You can off longtin recent nior is gener wide locat also or S cook will dou

YEAR

Another lady, Janice Blanchard of Ellijay, shared with both newspapers the fas-